Apodosis of Pascha on May 27th

Christ is risen from the dead, by death, trampling down upon death, and to those in the tombs He has granted life.

On Wednesday of the sixth week of Pascha, we celebrate the Apodosis of the Feast (or leavetaking). While most Feasts have their Leavetaking on the eighth day, Pascha, the Feast of Feasts, has its Leavetaking on the thirty-ninth day. The fortieth day is the Feast of the Lord's Ascension, which marks the end of the Lord's physical presence on earth. He does not abandon us, however. He has promised to be with us always, even until the end of the age. The services today are celebrated just as on the day of Pascha itself. Even though today is a Wednesday, fish, wine, and oil are permitted.

Lord's Ascension on May 28th

The Feast of the Ascension of our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ is celebrated each year on the fortieth day after the Great and Holy Feast of Pascha (Easter). Since the date of Pascha changes each year, the date of the Feast of the Ascension changes however the Feast is always celebrated on a Thursday. The Feast itself commemorates when, on the fortieth day after His Resurrection, Jesus led His disciples to the Mount of Olives, and after blessing them and asking them to wait for the fulfillment of the promise of the Holy Spirit, He ascended into heaven. The moment of the Ascension is told in one sentence: "He was lifted up before their eyes in a cloud which took Him from their sight" (Acts 1:9).
