KIDS AND YOUTH DRAWING CHALLENGE

Topic: Our Greek Community and Cultural Heritage

Take a moment to think about the wonderful activities connected to the Greek community, joyful religious celebrations, and cherished heritage that warm your heart. Create a drawing of a special memory, place, or event from our Greek culture or community that truly resonates with you!

Consider the following:

- Traditional Greek clothing, costumes, and celebrations
- Architectural landmarks in Greece
- A scene illustrating a cultural dance, performance, or poetry recital
- Representations of friendship, fellowship, and teamwork at community events (e.g., Mosaic)
- Involvement in Church life and feast days; Our Church

Requirements: The artist must complete the drawing on the Art Submission Paper, which can be picked up from our Community Hall. Use coloured pencils, crayons, or markers for a vibrant look; no glitter or digital submissions, please. Drawings will be showcased in June—details to follow! Completed artwork may be returned in the basket located in our Community Hall. Contact Maria Aiginitis at (306)596-9397 or Christopher Hamilton at (306)539-0120 for inquiries.

Deadline: June 1st.
